

Distech Controls Digital Partner Program

The link between smart building integrators and digital service companies

The Distech Controls Digital Partner Program brings together a network of companies sharing their expertise and best practices to make buildings more efficient, connected, and attractive.

Differentiate your offering by leveraging a collaboration between industry experts to successfully deliver your projects on time and on schedule.

- Leverage our network of trusted partners dedicated to the success of your project within an environment developed and inspired by all stakeholders
- Access documentation, training, and functional demonstrations
- Increase visibility with cross-promotion of solutions and partners
- Enjoy freedom and flexibility when selecting solution providers
- Benefit from a true collaboration between all partners assuring a unique and fully functional occupant experience

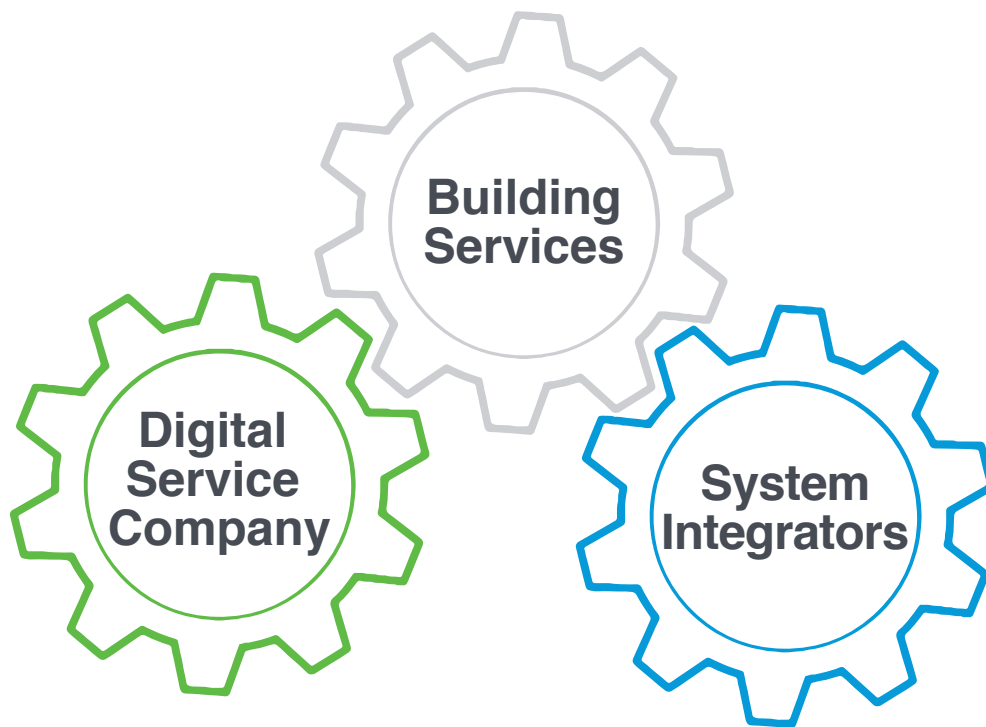

Measurable benefits for building owners and tenants.

- Modernize building maintenance through data-driven services
- Maximize space and energy usage with enhanced analytics
- Improve occupant experience

The Distech Controls Digital Partner Program

Provides a set of customized tools designed to increase building efficiencies, attractiveness, and performance while enhancing occupant satisfaction and wellbeing.

Differentiate yourself from the competition by delivering intelligent, attractive, and innovative building solutions supported by the collaborative efforts of our network of world-class experts.

Offer advanced digital infrastructure allowing for a better understanding of the building's overall usage as well as enhanced occupant experience.

Ensure quality deployment of the BMS and facilitate easy and reliable data exchange between OT and IT disciplines.